

Liberty Fellowship - Church Assessment

Church _____ Date _____

Completed by: (Circle One)

Senior Pastor Staff Pastor Admin Staff Elder Dept Leader

The Congregation and Leaders in Relationship

Strongly Disagree – 1 2 3 4 5 6 – Strongly Agree

1. There is a meaningful level of caring for one another within the congregation. The love of Christ is experienced in the midst of church activities.

1 2 3 4 5 6

1. The congregation feels adequately shepherded by the pastor/ pastoral care team.

1 2 3 4 5 6

2. Sufficient opportunity is provided for meaningful small group and social fellowship?

1 2 3 4 5 6

3. People who are not a part of a traditional family unit (single, divorced, widowed, etc) are accepted, included, and resourced by the church.

1 2 3 4 5 6

4. Visitors are made to feel welcome with sufficient follow-up to effectively touch those who are seeking a church home.

1 2 3 4 5 6

5. People are kept well informed on activities and decisions within the church.

1 2 3 4 5 6

6. The leaders and congregation deal with conflict in a positive and healthy manner.

1 2 3 4 5 6

7. There is a good level of harmony and sense of team manifested among the leaders.

1 2 3 4 5 6

The Congregation in Worship

Strongly Disagree – 1 2 3 4 5 6 – Strongly Agree

1. A significant number of the people consider the Sunday morning worship service a high point of their week.

1 2 3 4 5 6

2. Sunday morning worship services have good focus (do not try to do too many things) and utilize the time efficiently.

1 2 3 4 5 6

3. There is a good balance of input from sources other than the pastor (visiting ministers, lay leaders, children & youth, drama, etc).

1 2 3 4 5 6

4. There is sufficient opportunity in the service for persons who so desire to receive personal ministry.

1 2 3 4 5 6

5. The messages are generally life giving, easily understood, and include practical application.

1 2 3 4 5 6

6.The musical worship engages the congregation effectively and promotes the manifestation of God’s presence.

1 2 3 4 5 6

7.The musical worship has a good balance (song selection, volume, flow) – does not draw unnecessary attention to the team.

1 2 3 4 5 6

8.There are adequate opportunities for youth and young adults to participate in the worship service.

1 2 3 4 5 6

The Congregation in Service, Giving and Mission

Strongly Disagree – 1 2 3 4 5 6 – Strongly Agree

1.Most of the congregation is adequately resourced in discovering, developing and utilizing their spiritual gifts to minister and to edify the church.

1 2 3 4 5 6

2.The congregation is sufficiently involved in outreach activities and ministry to our community.

1 2 3 4 5 6

3.The congregation is effectively challenged by leadership in maintaining a healthy sense of commitment in helping to fulfill the Great Commission — to other nations.

1 2 3 4 5 6

4.The leaders are setting a good example in manifesting a generous spirit of giving to the congregation.

1 2 3 4 5 6

5.Leaders provide a positive environment, inspiring people to worship through the giving of financial tithes and offerings — without coercion.

1 2 3 4 5 6

6.The congregation is sufficiently involved in ministry to the needy within the church and in the community (in the spirit of Isaiah 58).

1 2 3 4 5 6

The Congregation in Spiritual Growth and Equipping

1.A significant percentage of the congregation live out their faith in victorious everyday living and with contagious enthusiasm.

1 2 3 4 5 6

2.The leaders gives adequate focus on the priority of equipping people to serve.

1 2 3 4 5 6

3.There are sufficient opportunities for singles and families to be trained in biblical living:

a. in the children's department

1 2 3 4 5 6

b. in the youth department

1 2 3 4 5 6

c. in the adult department

1 2 3 4 5 6

4.The youth department is providing a good balance of opportunities for both spiritual and social development.

1 2 3 4 5 6

5.Those with special needs (singles, divorced, seniors) are receiving adequate ministry.

1 2 3 4 5 6

6.Adequate training is provided for those being enlisted for ministry and leadership.

1 2 3 4 5 6

7.Workers are resourced with sufficient substitute coverage to provide adequate relief.

1 2 3 4 5 6

8.The church facilities are adequate to provide for the present needs of the various departments of the congregation.

1 2 3 4 5 6

9.There is an adequate emphasis and sufficient opportunity for group prayer participation.

1 2 3 4 5 6

If you have any personal perspectives that you feel would give further clarity regarding the state of the church, you may write them below.